Our Latest Report

With New Orleans facing billions of dollars in costs to improve infrastructure and public services, BGR's latest research report, The \$1 Billion Question Revisited: Updating BGR's 2015 Analysis of Orleans Parish Tax Revenues, breaks down 2019 projected local tax revenue by recipient and by purpose.

The new report is a resource to help policymakers and citizens assess how well current funding priorities align with New Orleans' needs and identify options to redirect tax revenues to meet those needs.
